FRIDAY TALK 27 MARCH 2020

With Climate Change on everyone's lips – and lapping around our wellies- you might be wondering what we can do.

This talk, by Midgley resident, Martin Tallis, looks at the energy we use in the UK, and some schemes to reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

The evening will provide an opportunity for discussion, with a hope that it will inspire you to make a change.

Climate Insights – what can we do in the UK?

7.30 in the Community Room.

Tickets to include refreshments £3.50

Pay on the door. Bar open all evening.

MIDGLEY SCHOOL will be participating in the National Grandparents Gardening Week 20th-24th April 2020.

We would love people from the community to join us any afternoon Monday-Thursday between 1.30 and 3pm to help us complete some of our gardening jobs at school, and at Midgley Rec.

On Friday 24th April at 2.15pm we will hold a Midgley Gardeners Gathering to celebrate the fantastic work that has happened during the week.

Refreshments will be served.

We do hope you are able to join us for one or more of the afternoons.

Help Wanted

A person to help promote and publicise Midgley Community shop and community events.

We are looking for a creative, imaginative and tech savvy person.

He/She will need to use both existing and new channels of communications.

In order to carry out this task, close liasing with both the shop management group and the social group will be essential.

Salary; Nothing. Rewards; Buckets of Job Satisfaction.

Interested? Contact Phil Lockyer 07973 801142 or email: oldmanofmidgley24@gmail.com

MIDGLEY WELL DRESSING (Formerly known as Spaw Sunday) 3rd MAY

Once again Midgley will celebrate the importance of water and its water sources by dressing the village wells.

The theme this year is Climate Change - What can the village do to help?

MIDGLEY VILLAGE SHOP NEWS

We are now in our 10th year at the Old Co-op and thanks to our hard working volunteers and loyal customers we continue to be successful.

Your on going support is essential for us to continue thriving.

Our aim is to provide the community with a local shop that caters for everyday basics and a wide range of grocery items at competitive prices, many of which are the same or less than leading supermarkets in our area and we are right on your doorstep.

Longley Farm Yogurts 39p * Cottage Cheese £1 * Free Range Large Eggs £1.30 for 6

We stock a range of fresh meats from Craggies as well as a selection of fruit and vegetables.

We can order specific items for customers – Just leave order details at the shop by 7pm on Monday and it will be delivered to the shop for you on Wednesday.

We now stock a range of Warburtons bread and breakfast items, in addition to Thomas's bread which is delivered every Thursday.

MAD MARCH WINE OFFERS

We always stock a range of very good wines at competitive prices, but during MARCH we are offering a variety of wines at a REDUCED PRICE.

Stocks are low, and when it's gone, it's gone.

DONT MISS OUT!

LUDDENDEN WI

at MIDGLEY COMMUNITY ROOM

The 2nd Thursday each month at 7.30pm

12th March – upcycling evening

9th April – Janet Warne- Reflexology

14th May – Meryl Clarke – Making a wild style bouquet.

Everyone most welcome – come and join us.

Please join us on Good Friday 10th April after the Pace Egg Play, as we officially open the new telephone box and have a look at the end results.

Our lovely red box has been transformed into a historical and contemporary point of reference for the village – at last!

A huge thank you to Craig Barson for all his hard work refurbishing the box. It's filled with lots of amazing photos of our village over the years and a fabulous map.

Come along to the Community Room afterwards as we celebrate all the hard work, with cake and a cuppa and a more spacious look at the map and the photographs that will be inside. Also, a chance to have a chat about the new Midgley Archive.....

OPEN GARDENS 13th and 14th JUNE

Folk come from far and near to this popular weekend but to make it a success we need people to kindly volunteer to open their gardens and studios, provide food and refreshments, sell tickets etc.

If you can help in any way for the whole weekend or just a few hours please come to a meeting on Thursday 19th March at 7.30pm in the Community Room or contact Anne Holdsworth on 01422 882901
